About our company

There is a lot that is being said about blockchain but not much done. We are here to change that.

Codezeros is the only emerging tech company that pioneers complete blockchain based solutions.

Our vision is to be at the forefront of the next technological revolution.

In blockchain, we trust

Blockchain is not transformation. It is updation. It is a technology that will change the way we trust. This technology is like a moderately grown tree that sprouted from an unplanned seed called bitcoin. For this tree to grow, it needs good farmers- blockchain engineers and developers, nutrients like good design, and use of the latest technology.

Our Offerings

If you search the internet right now for blockchain services, you would get a few scattered links pertaining to randomly [redacted] jargonated blogs.

We regularly define our scope of work and given the industry we are in, our engineers strive to update our tech stack. They are proactive enough to update our sales and marketing teams as well. [redacted]

2020 was the year of DEFI . Uniswap and Ethereum. Hundred's of innovative Decentralised Financial products launched on Ethereum and with that brought new words into the crypto vernacular- liquidity pools, rugs and DEX.
The pace of innovation is very quick in DEFI and solutions to problems around token sales, liquidity and locking of liquidity came quick and fast. But these were all focused upon Ethereum and Uniswap.
